Vol. XIX

Providence Phenix, Providence Patriot, and Columbian Phenix—Deaths: N to Z
Rhode Island American—Marriages: A to G

Published under the auspices of the General Assembly.

Providence, R. I.:
Narragansett Historical Publishing Company.
1910.
INTRODUCTION.

The Compiler with this volume presents the Nineteenth Volume of the Vital Record of Rhode Island, which he believes is fully as interesting as those of the preceding volumes. The matter printed herein finishes the deaths of the first Democratic paper and commences that of the Rhode Island Republican, the organ of the Jeffersonian Administration.

The General Assembly have as usual shown their public courtesy towards us, for which we extend our most grateful thanks.

The kind words and favors from our friends are deeply appreciated. This will aid us in continuing in the work to which we have given the best years of our life. May we so work as to be still worthy of such favors in the future.

In reading our notes please to keep in mind if the Marriage or Death date following carries the name of the paper before said date it means that the said Marriage or Death is announced as having taken place before that issue. If the paper is not mentioned it means the real date of the occurrence.

We close by trusting our readers will find their usual pleasure while perusing our new and latest volume.

The Providence Phenix,
Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix

DEATHS
(N to Z)
The Providence Phenix, Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix.

Vol. I, No. 1, of the Providence Phenix was issued Tuesday, May 11, 1802, and the terms were $1.50 per annum. It was first printed by W. W. Dunham for T. A. Foster and W. W. Dunham at Printing House Office opposite Hon. Theodore Foster's house, Westminster street.

On July 20, 1802, this extract from the works of Washington is placed beneath the title: "In proportion as the structure of government gives force to public opinion it is essential that the public opinion should be enlightened." On Nov. 20, 1802, the publication day was changed to Saturday. Nov. 5, 1803, the quotation was dropped and the following was substituted: "Published by William W. Dunham, opposite the Market House, Providence."

Theodore A. Foster withdrew May 21, 1803, and Mr. Dunham then became sole owner.

Commencing Wednesday, July 18, 1804, the paper was printed and published by William Olney. Sept. 15 the publication day was changed back again to Saturday, when the announcement was made that a new font of type was to be used. This number has for title page the words "Providence Phenix" in plain letters, the bird phenix arising from the fire (which has hitherto been a prominent feature of the title page) being dropped.

Oct. 12, 1805, the announcement is made that the office is removed to the chambers over D. Vinton's store, 7 Market Square. Jan. 17, 1807, Jones & Wheeler (Josiah Jones, Bennett Wheeler) announce themselves as the proprietors of the paper. Feb. 28, 1807, "Providence" is dropped from the title, and the words "The Phenix" substituted in a new style of letters. March 14 a wood cut showed these letters in white.

Jan. 16, 1808, The Phenix has a new title, "The Columbian Phenix." March 11, 1809, the word "The" was dropped from the latter title. July 15, 1809, it is announced as published by Wheeler, Jones & Co. This firm name appears but a few times, the name Jones & Wheeler continuing on each number as usual. The sub-title, "Columbian Phenix," was last used Jan. 12, 1811, and afterward no title but "Providence Phenix," in large letters and date in line following. Sept. 7, the sub-title, "The Patriot," is first used, the title having been from Jan. 19, "Columbian Phenix or Providence Patriot."

May 2, 1812, the paper is dressed in mourning in memory of the Vice President, George Clinton, who died at Washington April 20. May 3, 1813, a wood cut on the title page represented an eagle with shield in front and arrows in claws, with sunrise in the background.

Jan. 15, 1814, with the beginning of Volume XII the title of the paper is again changed. It now reads "Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix" instead of as before "Columbian Phenix and Providence Patriot."

Jan. 2, 1819, the paper became a semi-weekly, being published Wednesday and Saturday. The former price of $2.00 was changed to $3.50, and the title became "Providence Patriot" in large letters and "Columbian Phenix" in small letters. The firm name now was Jones, Wheeler and Cranston (Barzillai Cranston being added). Mr. Cranston continued in the firm one year only, when Jones and Wheeler continued it until May, 1823. The paper before Mr. Cranston was announced from April 17, 1819, as being published by J. Jones & Co., Printers to the State, 7 Market Square.

Eaton W. Maxcy succeeded Mr. Wheeler, but a year after transferred it to William Simons, the firm continuing as Jones & Simons until Nov., 1829, when Mr. Jones published as Agent. Mr. Simons retired. James O. Rockwell was editor from Nov. 11, 1829, until his death, June 7, 1831. June 9, 1832, it again became a weekly and so continued until its last issue, Dec. 29, 1832.

In politics it was Democratic. It was well edited and printed, being the first Democratic newspaper in the town of Providence. As first stated, it was first printed for T. A. Foster & Co., by W. W. Dunham. From Dec. 18, 1802, for a while it was printed by Samuel J. Williams. When it was first published it was $1.50 per annum, but when William Olney took charge it was raised to $2.00. J. Jones & Co., Printers to the State, continued as proprietors until Eaton W. Maxcy succeeded Mr. Wheeler when the firm name changed May 12, 1824, to Jones & Maxcy, and May 11, 1825, it again changed to Jones & Simons which co-partnership continued as above stated until Nov. 7, 1829, when Mr. Jones continued as agent.
In the last number, Dec. 29, 1832, he announces that his son, Cornelius S. Jones, will be editor and proprietor, and that the paper will have a new dress and be otherwise improved. This did not materialize however and no paper succeeded.

Of all these papers we have seen all the numbers issued except those for April 29 and Sept. 22, 1804, Jan. 24, 1829, Nov. 12, 1831, Jan. 25 and June 2, 1832. This file is in the possession of the Rhode Island Historical Society, whence these extracts and the matter published in this volume have been gleaned.

The Rhode Island American Marriages
The first number of the Rhode Island American was issued Friday, October 21, 1808, by Dunham and Hawkins, William W. Dunham, editor, and David Hawkins, Jr. It was printed at the sign of the American Eagle, opposite the market. Terms three dollars per year, half in advance.

The editorial announcement in the first number stated probably as the reason for establishing the paper that the "pressing necessity of the present period which was to decide whether the politics of Washington shall once more regain their proper influence in the hearts of his countrymen demands correspondent exertion."

October 5th, 1825, a consolidation was effected between the Gazette and the American. The firm of Brown and Carlile was formed (Hugh H. Brown and Francis T. Carlile) and conducted the printing on the north side of Market Square. William S. Patten was editor for one year when he was succeeded by Christopher E. Robbins.

In March, 1827, Mr. Carlile bought out his partner and employed Benjamin F. Hallett as editor. In the July following the Microcosm, a weekly paper, established June 10, 1825, by Walter R. Danforth, was absorbed by the American. Two years later (July, 1829) the Cadet and Statesman was also taken in. The title was changed to that of the Rhode Island American Statesman AND Gazette. The Cadet and Statesman was founded as the Literary Cadet and Saturday Evening Bulletin. It was published by Smith and Parmenter (Samuel J. Smith, Jonathan C. Parmenter); Sylvester S. Southworth was editor. It was a weekly until July, 1828, and then semi-weekly until its absorption. The last number was issued Friday, Feb. 1, 1833. Saturday, Feb. 9, it was continued under the title of Microcosm American AND Gazette until its final discontinuance March 29, 1834. Daniel Mowry, 3d, was proprietor of these last consolidation papers. April 6, 1833, he sold out to James S. Hamm & Co., (Joseph Knowles the Co.,) who owned it at its final discontinuance. The paper obtained a high position in the community and had among its writers the best talent of the State. William Goddard was editor when it was at its best.
